

Case Presentation: Filling First Examination of the Newborn : Form

Shanti gave birth to a baby girl on February 1, 2002 at 1:00 p.m. in the afternoon

- Her last menstrual period could not be ascertained because she got pregnant while breastfeeding her little boy.
- You are doing the first exam on February 1 at 2 p.m.
- Shanti did not lose consciousness or have fits, and her bleeding, she says, is normal.
- The baby was put to the breast at 1:20 p.m.
- No other fluids were given.
- The baby was feeding well, without any problem.

- The baby's temperature was 98° F (36.7° C).
- Her eyes were clear.
- Her nipples were slightly swollen.
- The umbilical cord was tied correctly and is not bleeding.
- She weighs 2 kg 900 gms.
- The baby did not get injection Vit 'K'.

Note : Conditions that are not mentioned in the case should be considered to be normal while filling the form.